

Child Labor Coalition

In association with Aapne Aap;
Changing Cases; and Prevent Child Abuse New York

DC Film Screening of SOLD Wednesday 25th Jan 2017 6pm – 8:30pm Registration begins at 5:30pm

The Child Labor Coalition; Aapne Aap; Changing Cases; and Prevent Child Abuse New York present SOLD the movie adaptation of Patricia McCormick's novel. It is based on true stories of child exploitation in India, and follows one child's journey from Nepal to the Happiness House (brothel) in Kolkata. Directed by Academy Award winner, Jeffrey D. Brown and Produced by Jane Charles, this is a must see movie for those who don't understand trafficking, and those in the fight against trafficking.

We hope it will inspire every attendee into action, to help bring an end to this modern day slavery.

Martin Luther King Jr. Library: Room A5, 901 G St NW, Washington DC 20001

Tickets: www.tugg.com/events/human-trafficking-awareness-sold-film-screening

Following the film there will be a brief panel discussion with Andrea Powell (Executive Director and Co-Founder, Fair Girls); Moderator Chris Hunt (Executive Director and Founder, The Lily and the Sparrow); Elizabeth Peace (Communications Director, U.S. House of Representatives and reigning Mrs. Virginia); Lima James (Education Training Coordinator, LifeWay Network); Nate King (Field Organizer, International Justice Mission); Patrick Atkinson (Founder and CEO, Institute for Trafficked, Exploited & Missing Persons).

Let's continue the conversation at the Cure Bar and Bistro, Grand Hyatt, 1000 H St NW, Washington, DC 20001

For more information visit www.changingcases.org/news or contact the event coordinator at: juanita.headley@changingcases.com

This event is made possible because of the tireless efforts of Juanita Headley Esq; and additional support from Kimberly Carson.

www.goodweave.org/home.php

